

Please leave the XM radio network alone. They are doing a great job. Those of us who own XM radios pay for the right to listen to what we want when we want and no one should stick their noses into what is none of their business. I vote for you to leave them alone.